Yes Beautification, Historic Preservation

Summary & Background

(First sentence includes Agency recommendation. Provide an executive summary of the action that gives an overview of the relevant details for the item.)

Staff recommendation: Approval of deck with conditions; T. Madden & Associates law firm has been in operation at 114 South Main Street for many years. Recently, they applied for a replacement deck to replace the aging wood deck that is there now. Though the deck is not visible from Main Street, it is visible from Broad Street, and will overlook the Broad Street redevelopment. The property is zoned H-1 Historic District.

Save for locating decks at the rear of properties and structures, there are no specific standards for deck designs in the Historic District. However, to be approved, the replacement deck will need to closely match the material, color, and style of the original deck design, and harmonize with adjacent businesses. The new deck must also conform to the rear property line and setbacks. The new deck is subject to building plan review.

Two options were presented – one with the stairs facing the side like the original deck, and one with the stairs facing the rear of the property and the Broad Street development. The applicant prefers the side facing stairs. The deck would be quality wood with black metal railings. (Fig Tree Café rear deck has a similar design.)

The deck extension will be an improvement over the old deck, with better design and railings. While it will be wider than the original deck, it will not be significantly taller. Being wider, it is more of an “interactive deck” where employees can sit and view the Broad Street development. However, the rear property line location and setbacks must be verified

(First sentence includes Agency recommendation. Provide an executive summary of the action that gives an overview of the relevant details for the item.)

Agency recommendation – Approval of new wall sign panel; Recently, Ascension by Eyse Spa Services was approved to operate in the middle building of the commercial center at 184-188 North Avenue. They are now submitting a design for a new wall sign over suite 104. This property does not lie within any overlays or districts.

The wall sign panel (illuminated molded vinyl lettering sign/light box shaped as channel letters) above the front entrance is proposed to be 55 total square feet (including the large “A”), which is below the maximum 150 square feet allowed in Code Section 86-490(b). The panel will be about 6.9% of the total front business façade, below the 7.5% allowed. The color scheme will not be compatible with adjacent businesses. The sign will be internally illuminated.

Although staff appreciates the bold design of the proposed sign, the Board may want to discuss making the “A” less prominent.

Beautification, Community Planning, Neighborhood and Business
Revitalization

Summary & Background

(First sentence includes Agency recommendation. Provide an executive summary of the action that gives an overview of the relevant details for the item.)

Agency recommendation – Approval of carport enclosure with conditions; The single-family detached residence with single carport at 131 South Avenue was built many years ago. Recently, the current owner applied to fully enclose the carport on the side of the house. The enclosure would be used as an extra “living room” and not be a bedroom. Their building permit is pending, but Design Review Commission review is required. The property is zoned R-2 and is not in the Historic District or in any Overlay District. The residence is predominantly brick (painted white), but the applicant is proposing to have the carport enclosure enclosed by siding (with several new windows).

Per Code Sec. 86-276., the enclosure of porches or garages prohibited.

Enclosure of front porches shall be prohibited without compensating construction of a replacement porch of equal or greater dimension. Similarly, enclosure of attached garages shall be prohibited without compensating construction of a replacement garage of equal or greater dimension. Replacement garages may be attached or detached.

However, the code does not prohibit the enclosure of carports, and the Code makes a distinction between garages and carports:

Carport. A structure attached or made a part of a principal dwelling and open to the elements on two or more sides, intended to shelter vehicles.

Garage, private. An accessory building or a portion of the principal dwelling designed or used for storage of motor-driven vehicles owned and used by the occupants of the building. The garage is enclosed on all three sides where the access door is not.

Thus, per the enclosed pictures, the structure definitely qualifies as a carport.

The codification of the Design Review Commission authorizes the Commission to review such applications:

g. Make recommendations to the City Manager and Community Development Director regarding significant exterior modifications to existing developments, buildings and structures (including signs) that do not require public zoning hearings and do not lie within the Historic District or Overlays.

(b) R-2 Development standards. Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, uses permitted in the R-2 district shall conform to the following development standards:

- (1) Minimum lot area: 21,780 square feet (1/2-acre) Lot not changing.
- (2) Minimum lot width: 100 feet Lot not changing.
- (3) Minimum front yard: 35 feet Overall footprint not changing.
- (4) Minimum side yard: 15 feet Overall footprint not changing.
- (5) Minimum rear yard: 35 feet Overall footprint not changing.
- (6) Minimum floor area per dwelling unit: 1,600 square feet The house is only 1200 square feet of living area and will still be under the 1600 square-foot minimum. However, the overall footprint is not changing, so I do not regard this as a variance situation.
- (7) Maximum building height: Two stories and 35 feet Height not changing.
- (8) Maximum lot coverage: 35 percent Overall footprint not changing.

Sec. 86-227. - Building exterior.

All residential and commercial construction shall be brick, concrete stucco, stone, cementitious siding, wood or similar, durable architectural materials. Vinyl siding may be permitted in residential applications, only, provided the grade of vinyl meets or exceeds the Standard Specification for Rigid PVC Siding (ASTM D-3679). All manufacturers' recommendations concerning vinyl siding installation must be closely followed.

While vinyl siding would be allowed on this portion of South Avenue (outside of the Historic Residential Overlay), staff recommends Hardiplank siding for the enclosure, a material superior to vinyl. However, the house there, and most of the houses on the street are predominantly brick. However, the brick on this house is painted white and is not distinctive enough from the street, to justify a brick water table at the bottom of the carport enclosure. Staff would like to make the following approval recommendations:

- 1. Hardiplank siding color shall be white.
- 2. New windows and shutters shall match color and style of existing front windows.
